

JobDesk Privacy Policy

The app is intended to help jobseekers find the right job and as such we do not share any information collected by us from you to any third parties.

No other company or institution will be provided with your information, we collect some information like your name, email, contact number to serve you better, be in contact with you and intimate about any upcoming job fairs etc.

The information is secure with us on enterprise grade servers and confidentiality is guaranteed.